I want to give a warm welcome to the manager, staff, players and directors of Tring Athletic.

Having played each other just seven days ago, we are looking forward to another entertaining afternoon of football in what could be a crucial match for the club.

During the week, the players showed real character and desire to pick up three convincing points against FC Romania. Producing one of the most impressive second-half displays this season, as the squad entertained a lively McMullen Park crowd on Tuesday Night.

We expect a record crowd this afternoon, thanks to the large following attending the Cheat-code Conference in Bedford this weekend. As a Bedford local, seeing people come from far and wide to this town and visit us on a match day is amazing. We hope you can add to what is already expected to be a great atmosphere at the ground today. The team always thrives off that atmosphere, which should provide an added edge on the pitch.

This is our penultimate home match this season, and I would like to thank everyone in attendance. The support for the team has been immense from Tuesday, August 1st, all the way until now.

Rob Sinclair, Manager

Welcome everyone to McMullen Park. It's surreal to have so many people here, especially the Bitcoin nutters who've travelled to Bedford for our CheatCode conference. We're hosting an event like this for the second time, and seeing the arrival of hundreds to our town is truly phenomenal. It honestly makes me a little emotional.

I'm writing these notes before the conference, hoping that by today's game, we'll be celebrating its success. A massive thank you goes to Jess, Emma, Conor and Danny. The complexity of organising a conference is immense, but they handled it with precision and care.

A massive thanks also goes to everyone who has travelled far and wide to this town that I am so proud of. I've met people from Brazil, America, Switzerland, and many other places who have come to see and support our efforts in Bedford.

During the conference, we made a significant announcement regarding Real Bedford: Winklevoss Capital has agreed to invest $4.5 million in our project. This investment by Tyler and Cameron Winklevoss, who have supported me for years, is groundbreaking for a club of our size. Their belief in our ambitious goal to take a team from the 10th tier of English football to the Premier League is nothing short of amazing. I'll never be able to thank you enough for backing me.

Two years ago, I shared a beer with them in Texas and discussed my plan to take a 10th-tier football team to the football league, six promotions away. Tyler immediately asked how I would get them to the Premier League; obviously, this may seem like a lofty aim, but like Bitcoin, I love being an underdog.

My last two years as chairman have been my apprenticeship in running a football club. I need to thank so many people, especially my manager, Rob Sinclair. He has helped me understand the role of a chairman and the requirements for success. Thanks, Rob.

I'm constantly learning that operating a football club is tough and will only get harder with each promotion.

However, I'm here for it, here to win trophies, and determined to make Real Bedford a success.

The Winklevoss investment will primarily serve as a Bitcoin treasury asset to strengthen the club's financial foundation. As the world begins to reprice in Bitcoin, we'll utilise a unique economic model to ensure sustainable growth.

While some might laugh at our Premier League ambitions, those familiar with Bitcoin understand its feasibility. Our club isn't a fleeting, chaotic venture like others; it's structured, community-focused, and designed for long-term success. Moreover, the funds will enhance our infrastructure, aiding in developing our training centre and establishing an academy to foster local talent.

As the season nears its end, I'm incredibly proud of our teams. The men are close to securing a second consecutive title, and the women's team is pushing for a win in their league. We also look forward to the three cup finals our teams have made.

Our youth setups, Real Bedford Girls and Bedford Park Rangers continue to promise more trophies, and we are committed to supporting them. Ultimately, this journey is for Bedford. I'm dedicated to bringing success to the town and its residents, ensuring opportunities for everyone to achieve their potential.

While Neil's notes will cover many to whom I owe thanks, I must mention the club volunteers, my family for their immense support and sacrifices, and all who contribute to this dream, especially my Dad, brother, sister and kids.

Thank you to every fan who has supported us. Your support makes all this possible. Let's grab those three points today.

Up the Pirates!

Peter McCormack, Chairman

The Pirates produce a scintillating performance under the lights against FC Romania.

An incredible second half sealed the deal for Real Bedford as they moved one step closer to lifting the title.

This top-of-the-table clash at McMullen Park was expected to be a tense occasion, with FC Romania looking to affirm their play-off place and The Pirates keen to extend their lead at the top.

The first chance fell to the home side, Drew Richardson picked off a pass in the midfield and found Joey Evans. Real Bedford's top goal scorer looked to add to his tally early with a long-range effort, but it was just wide of the goal.

Bedford were soon in again on the counter, this time it was Charlie Smith who picked off a pass in the midfield, passing it onto Evans who flicked it over the defence, inviting Archie Jones onto the ball. Jones connected with the ball at the same time as FC Romania keeper Elgi Fejzo, with both taking a nasty knock in the process and failing to find the target.

The visitors then had their best chances of the match back to back, catching Bedford off guard both Styliandies and Gyaw-Kyem narrowly missed the target in quick succession. The latter left the crossbar reverberating after his effort.

Rob Sinclair's men soon found their first at the half-hour mark. After Lee Watkins dispossessed Romania in the midfield, he used Setchell to find a pass to Eddie Corbit. The right-back delivered a wicked ball into the box. The ball initially fell back to Ben Stevens on the edge of the area, his chance was saved by Fejzo, but only as far as Jones who tapped it in for the opening goal.

Jones doubled his tally just before the break, this time it was the great work of Ben Stevens down the left flank who whipped in an inch-perfect pass across the face of goal towards Jones. The midfielder just got enough on the ball to guide it home, giving The Pirates the lead at the break.

Second Half

The second half started with a flurry, 5 minutes in Bedford got their third. Josh Setchell looped a ball into the box which was headed down by Joey Evans to Brett Longden. The left-back flicked the ball back into the air before smashing it on the half volley into the top right. With a celebration to match the incredible finish, McMullen Park collectively was on their feet.

Moments later and it seemed all too easy for Bedford to find the back of the net. Archie Jones played a pass to a vacant Evans who in turn played through Stevens. The midfielder was one-on-one with Fejzo, cooly taking it past the keeper before slotting it home.

The goals continued to rain down for The Pirates. Setchell this time with a low-driven cross into the area. The ball was helped on by Evans to Stevens at the back post, some heroic defending denied him the goal, but Evans headed it over the line for his first of the night.

His brace would come soon after and wrap up the goal-scoring, Lee Watkins picked the pockets of Daniel Ortiz, and gifted the ball to Evans who wrapped it past Fejzo.

The Pirates now play Tring Athletic on Saturday which could prove to be a record-breaking afternoon for the club. Learn more about this weekend and how to secure your tickets here.

Good afternoon to everyone joining us at the club today as we head into the final stages of a long and challenging but ultimately exciting season.

Having adapted my role at the club in July, I have had to step up in a well-established league, creating solid relationships with the league and the Beds FA. Huge thanks must go to all the staff involved in those organisations, particularly Louise Condon from the Beds FA, whom I talk to most weeks and who has been an incredible support to me. Phil Pateman and John Chidley, to name just a few from the SSML, have provided invaluable support throughout the campaign.

Away from McMullen Park, I have been lucky to attend two great courses run by Women in Football, visiting Premier League grounds in Brentford and Fulham. It has been great to connect with like-minded women within the industry and learn from some invaluable talks and discussions.

Now, onto my thank yous, of which there are a lot. This club would be nothing without the people who turn up week in and week out. Our crowds have continued to grow across the season, and it is nice to see new and returning faces through the gates each match day.

Thank you to all our volunteers: Karen, Wendy, Jim, Jason, Arun, Charlie, Craig, Mark, Seb, Scarlett, Conor, Oliver, Lorraine, and Seren. You all help match days run smoothly.

Huge thanks to the team. They are a rowdy, cheeky bunch, but they are one hell of a team, a fantastic group of lads. Their appreciation and respect do not go unnoticed; I'm proud of them all. Again, thanks to Rob, Mark, Brownie, Lottie, Gerry, and Pete. They work hard week in and week out, running the Team. What a season it has been! And thank you to our groundsman, Jack, for providing the squad with the best pitch possible.

Last but certainly not least, thank you to one of the best teams I have worked with. We all work super hard and relentlessly on this project (and many others behind the scenes). This week has been especially testing. Peter, thank you for constantly pushing me to be the best I can be, guiding me through my new role, and trusting me and my decisions. Neil, thank you for putting up with me; your support has always been second to none. Will, your work has been exceptional and a huge asset to our team, and it's been a pleasure to support you all season! And thanks to Seb for always understanding how busy I am.

We hope you have all had the best season with us, and we look forward to doing all again with you in a few months.

Anyone who knows Peter knows that he doesn't do things by halves. In tech speak, he's a disrupter. So when he wanted to start and run a football team, it was clear that this was going to be a project that would cause ripples. And, in typical Pete fashion, this started immediately. He was invited onto the prestigious Talk Sport Radio in early 2022 to discuss how he planned to take a Step 6 club to the Premier League. It was a light-hearted attempt to poke fun at the far-fetched dreams of those flamboyant characters who come in and out of football with alarming regularity.

There was then a barrage of ridicule aimed at Peter via social media, including from journalists covering corruption in football where new owners exploit their clubs to push dubious investments. Football administrators representing the Football Association and the League took calls. Still, they were pessimistic that Pete's project would be any different to the myriad of other flash-in-the-pan projects that had crossed their desks over the previous decades. And finally, there were the barbs from opposing fans who laughed at the idea that this guy without any experience in the footballing industry could mount a serious challenge in Step 6, let alone make any meaningful climb up the football pyramid.

But here we are, exactly two years on, and the men's team has more than a great opportunity to win back-to-back promotions and another cup win. The ladies' team, who won an incredible 15 league games on the trot, is on track to win promotion to tier 4 of the women's football pyramid, three divisions below the Women's Super League.

Real Bedford supports boys' and girls' youth football within the town, including providing kits and a hardship fund to ensure there is no barrier to accessing football opportunities. Attendances have grown steadily; today, we expect to see another record broken. Families and young people dominate these crowds. They come for the football and the inclusive fan-centred experience that Pete and Emma Firman, the club's legendary CEO, have fostered.

Matchdays only function successfully because of Emma's relentless pursuit of perfection. She can spin plates, juggle, and eat fire all at once, all while smiling and making people feel at home! There is the incremental but vital investment in new facilities, equipment, and personnel that's only going to accelerate in the years to come. Finally, we have the distinctive skull and crossbones brand that is now recognised by growing communities of fans across the world.

It is an understatement to say that Pete is an achiever. But, this success would be inevitable for those viewing the project from outside. "Businessman outspends the opposition" is the popular narrative. What that belies is the incredible amount of hard work, focus and professionalism that has been required. The fantastic manager Rob Sinclair and his equally impressive management team have meticulously built, trained and honed the football team. Anyone who thinks money alone can make a team should only look at teams like Chelsea to see that money alone doesn't equal success.

Rob has cultivated a team in every sense: it says something when players not in matchday squads come along to support the club. Then there is the tsunami of issues that have threatened to derail the team at every juncture: fraud, physical attacks, nefarious and malicious actions by third parties - a throughline to the story of Real Bedford is the consistent slings and arrows directed from powerful interests who want us to fail. Most importantly, there is the personal investment from Pete himself, both financial and emotional.

There isn't a bottomless pit of funds being invested; the club's commercial aspects are being developed sustainably to ensure longevity. Further, financial support is targeted in a laser-like fashion at priority areas. That said, Pete has repeatedly put his hand in his pocket to enable the club to invest, build, fix and function. He's also put his hard-earned reputation on the line. So many bitter people would delight at seeing Pete fail. That's the pressure he faces daily. Yet his motivation is pure: he wants to bring noteworthy sporting pride to his hometown. The reason is that this will enable young people to benefit from all of the incredible secondary impacts such success would bring in terms of facilities, opportunities and attention.

This isn't to say Pete, Emma, and Rob are the only people behind the project's success. The previous owner, Lui De Mara, has been an invaluable ally on our journey. His work in keeping the club functioning through many long and difficult periods (not least during COVID-19) was the action of a miracle worker. He has continued to mentor, guide and back everything we have done since he honourably passed the baton on.

Our head groundsman, Jack Mudge, has worked tirelessly to ensure we had a pitch to play on during the terrible winter. It is a testament to his work that we aren't suffering the backlog of fixtures that other clubs are, and further, that our pitch has been praised by visiting officials. Will Roberts runs our media provision as a consummate pro and comes across as someone who has worked in the industry for decades. Wendy turns up week in and week out to ensure everyone gets a hearty and delicious meal from the confines of our small kitchen.

I could go on and on and on... We have attracted an army of amazing volunteers, cheerful souls who seem to enjoy freely giving up their time to help us on our mission; one of them has an hour-and-a-half walk to McMullen Park for each match, followed by an hour-and-a-half walk back!

So, for new visitors to McMullen Park today, firstly, welcome to what will hopefully become a regular haunt for you in the coming years. Secondly, the success of today's event has come on the back of countless hours, days, and weeks of focused and thankless work behind the scenes from an army of staff, volunteers, and friends of the club. Thirdly, for those who still doubt Pete's faith in this seemingly insane project, give him the credit he deserves for nailing the past two years. And know this, Pete will achieve his aim. League Football in Bedford is no longer a pipe dream. We finally have a club with a credible path to putting the town on the football map. Up the Pirates!!!

Tring Athletic Youth FC were established in March 1958, when the founders contributed towards the purchase of 3.4 acres (14,000 m2) of land at Miswell Lane. The club joined the West Herts Saturday League in the early 1960s, and despite only fielding players under-21, they won the Division One title three times in five years.

Following a spell without success, the age limit was scrapped in 1971 and the club was renamed Tring Athletic. In the mid-1970s the ground was sold to the local council and the club were relegated to Division Three. However, by the mid-1980s they were back in the Premier Division.

In 1988 the club joined Division One of the South Midlands League. They returned to Miswell Lane in 1992. After missing out on the Senior Division title in 1997–98 on goal difference, they won the league in 1999–00. In the same season they also won the Herts Charity Shield, the Herts Senior Centenary Trophy and the Cherry Red Books Trophy.

Due to an inability to install floodlights at Miswell Lane, in 2003 the club absorbed Isthmian League neighbours Tring Town F.C. with an agreement to move to their Pendley ground, which already had floodlights. In 2003–04 they finished fourth in Division One and were promoted to the Premier Division.
